

Asian Law and Economics Association
Minutes of 2nd General Meeting
Friday, December 8, 2006, 3pm
National University Law School, Bangalore

Present:

Professor Ivan Png, President

Dr A.V. Raja, Secretary

Other members including

Mr B. Gopalakrishnan, Senior Vice President, UTI Bank

Mr Somashekhar, Dept. of Economics, National Law School of India University

1. The meeting was called to order at 3.0pm.
2. On behalf of the Association, Professor Png thanked UTI Bank for generously sponsoring the annual conference. He also thanked the University of Hyderabad and the National Law School of India University for financial and logistical support, and Mr Somashekhar and colleagues and students for organization and assistance.
3. Professor Png proposed Professor Moriki Hosoe of Kyushu University, Japan, as president for year 2006/07. The proposal was seconded and passed unanimously.
4. Professor Png proposed Dr Kong-ping Chen of Academia Sinica, Taiwan, as secretary for year 2006/07. The proposal was seconded and passed unanimously.
5. The meeting discussed several issues, including:
 - a. Whether to subsidize the attendance of scholars from low-income countries at future annual conferences;
 - b. Whether to arrange for publication of the papers contributed to future annual conferences.
6. Professor Png undertook to relay these views to the incoming president, Professor Hosoe.
7. There being no further issues raised, the meeting was closed at 4.0pm.

Recorded by: A.V. Raja, Secretary

Approved by: I.P.L. Png, President